The Inn of the Five Graces

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

There is something magical about Santa Fe's Spanish-Pueblo architecture swathed in Christmas lights and the ruddy New Mexico earth blanketed in a whisper of snow. For those heading to the Southwest for a winter getaway, The Inn of the Five Graces is as luxurious as it is centrally located, smack-dab in the heart of Santa Fe's historic section. In the evening, wander next door to the famed Pink Adobe restaurant before catching a performance at the Santa Fe Playhouse. Rooms were recently beautifully remodeled, but for those seeking the ultimate romantic and secluded experience, check into the grand stucco Luminaria House (named after the sand-filled paper bag candle lanterns displayed during Christmas), with dramatic cathedral ceilings and five fireplaces. Luminaria residents can secure a private evening butler and/or private chef to assist in a private wine-paired, five-course meal. Top off the evening with a cognac, while warming up in front of your outdoor fireplace. Suites from $360. (505) 992-0957, www.fivegraces.com

Amanyara

PROVIDENCIALES, TURKS AND CAICOS

At the 40-room Amanyara in the Turks and Caicos, the latest in the luxury group's portfolio of unique escapes, nature calls the shots. Set on the tip of a 4,100-acre reserve flanked by sandy beach and craggy bays, and surrounded by the third largest coral reef in the world, it's tough to get closer to paradise than this. Entering the open-air pavilion, you'll spy a massive reflecting pond, and low rooflines merge seamlessly with the landscape. A total of 40 identical timber-shingled structures are scattered throughout the property: Pavilions are nestled in the vegetation, on the edge of ponds, and along the oceanfront. A few of the Aman signature offerings include 24-hour concierge and room service, as well as a maid and valet. The exquisite Aman Spa creates bespoke services incorporating yoga, meditation, and massage. Charters can whisk you away for scuba diving or bone fishing; or play a round of golf at the nearby 18-hole Providenciales Golf Club, regularly ranked as one of the top Caribbean golf courses. Rooms from $1,100. (866) 941-8133, www.amanyara.com
