THE INN OF THE FIVE GRACES

Where the Orient and the Old West Meet...

At The Inn of The Five Graces and The Pink Adobe Restaurant, the Orient and the Old West meet, surprisingly at home in each other's arms. Interlocked honey-walled adobe courtyards, and overhead, a dazzling blue blanket of sky pulled tight across the city of Santa Fe. The guest suites, odd and mysterious and deeply luxurious, each a dream of Scheherazade wind around, leading from room to hidden room. Astonishing bathrooms, cavernous rounded tubs filled feet deep with steaming water and crowned by vivid tile mosaics, the soft glow and unforgettable scent of burning pinon emanating from the fireplace. Tantalizing and world renowned flavors of the Southwest and beyond wait to reward your pallet. We are graced with five ways to experience the splendor of the world: Sight, Sound, Smell, Touch, and Taste. Let the remarkable staff of this intimate Relais and Chateaux property gratify each one for you on your wedding day.
